-Robert Parker's The Wine Advocate ('10)

The Southern part of the Inca civilization once ruled where our estate vineyards are now located in Cafayate, Salta, Argentina, at 6,000 feet above sea level. This beautifully expresses its Salta terroir: explosive aromas and flavors of tropical fruits, white flowers, and honeysuckle.

The Southern part of the Inca civilization once ruled where our estate vineyards are now located in Cafayate, Salta, Argentina, at 6,000 feet above sea level. This beautifully expresses its Salta terroir: aromas and flavors of red fruits, plums, blackberries, and earth. It is an easy-drinking wine, with sweet tannins and a long finish.
