KSANA

Ksana refers to the Buddhist idea of infinity in an instant. We believe the expression of a wine depends on the original quality of the grapes, the experience of the winemaker and mostly on his or her intuition, the ability to recognize the instant, the right moment for each step in the vineyard. All these together are what will make a wine last in your memory forever.

This Malbec has been meticulously crafted at every vineyard and winemaking moment. The use of native yeasts emphasizes its Mendoza terroir.
