

THE 50 BEST NEW WORLD PINOT NOIRS

Pinot Noir is finally making a home for itself outside Burgundy. MATTHEW JUKES rates the best of the New World, from Australia to the US

ATA RANGI 2007 ★★★★★

Martinborough, New Zealand

The standard bearer for Martinborough and still the finest Pinot of its style, this is a wine that has so much complexity that you must treat with the respect it commands.

A modern-age trailblazer.

ATA RANGI CRIMSON 2008 ★★★★★

Martinborough, New Zealand

Crimson is supposedly the wine to introduce you to its bigger Ata Rangi Estate Pinot. But perversely, you need all of the Pinot knowledge in the world to understand just how special Crimson is.
