Tapiz Malbec Organic Grapes

Made with organically-grown grapes from our estate Las Uvas vineyard in Tupungato, Valle de Uco; certified organic by the U.S.-recognized Organización Internacional Agropecuaria (OIA).

From the Ortiz family; the winemakers are Fabian Valenzuela and Jean Claude Berrouet, and the vineyard manager is Carlos Correas.

This Malbec has a deep purple color, with lush flavors of cherries and raspberries, spice, and violets. Aged 8 months in French oak barrels for added complexity and length.

“Take Note—This is a Winery to Follow”

-Sommelier Journal

Tapiz is one of the most renowned and awarded Argentine wineries. Winemaker Fabian Valenzuela was joined by Jean Claude Berrouet in 2012. Jean Claude is the recently-retired winemaker of Petrus, having presided over 44 vintages at this revered Bordeaux winery. Tapiz is proud that Jean Claude chose to work with them exclusively in Argentina.

Tapiz Owner & President Patricia Ortiz has always realized the importance of sustainability, and owns an organically-certified vineyard called Las Uvas en Tupungato, Valle de Uco, Mendoza. The extreme altitude of this vineyard (over 3,500 feet above sea-level) provides for warm days which impart concentration to the grapes, and cold nights which give natural acidity. The desert environment naturally allows for the production of very high quality organic grapes.

Fabian and Jean Claude work together to create a beautiful tapiz (tapestry) between the wine's unfiltered fruit and its oak aging. This full-bodied yet elegant Malbec has the acidity and complexity to drink on their own or complement food. As Restaurant Wine exclaimed: “Tapiz is a very consistent producer of excellent wines.”
