

Tapiz Malbec

"This has lovely mouthfeel, with inviting crushed plum, raspberry and mocha notes that all glide through the velvety, spice-filled finish. Delicious." -89 points ('08), Wine Spectator

Look for the Vino del Sol trademark on the back of bottles as a trusted source for quality wines from Argentina.

Tapiz Chardonnay

Zesty aromas of tropical fruit, apples, pears, peaches and a mineral note. A great "tapestry" between the concentrated fruit and light oak treatment (5% French oak).

Look for the Vino del Sol trademark on the back of bottles as a trusted source for quality wines from Argentina.

Tapiz Syrah

Meaty aromas of blueberries, coffee, and black pepper. 10 months in French and American oak barrels. Wine Advocate scored the '06 89 points.

Look for the Vino del Sol trademark on the back of bottles as a trusted source for quality wines from Argentina.

Tapiz Cabernet Sauvignon

Intense aromas of fruit jam, pepper, spice, and chocolate with firm tannins and a long finish. Jancis Robinson rated the '07 a Very Good Value.

Look for the Vino del Sol trademark on the back of bottles as a trusted source for quality wines from Argentina.

Tapiz Merlot

Elegant aromas of strawberry jam, pepper, and vanilla. 8 months in French and American oak barrels. Wilfred Wong scored it 90 points ('07).

Look for the Vino del Sol trademark on the back of bottles as a trusted source for quality wines from Argentina.

Tapiz Selección de Barricas

94 POINTS!

-Cuisine&Vins

Great concentration, typical of the high altitude vineyards from Mendoza. An attractive pallet of colors with a predominance of red and violet tints. Velvety and rounded body with complex and concentrated nose of red berries, black current and plum ending with nuances of vanilla and chocolate. Soft and lasting finish with mature and velvety tannins.

Look for the Vino del Sol trademark on the back of bottles as a trusted source for quality wines from Argentina.

